Dear Sir / Madam,

Following your early application for third country approval in the context of Brexit and payment of the related fee, we are pleased to announce that your EASA certificate has been issued.

As explained in our previous email and on our website, this EASA certificate is subject to the following:

- Your EASA certificate is valid as of March 30, 2019.
- The electronic copy of your EASA certificate will be sent to you on March 30, 2019. The hard copy will be sent to you the following week.
- The surveillance cycle/recurrent phase will start on March 30, 2019, following the standard EASA procedures and fees in accordance with Commission Regulation (EU) No. 319/2014. Please visit our website for further details on the fees. (<https://www.easa.europa.eu/brexit>)

As the withdrawal and transitional agreement negotiations between the European Commission and the UK Government are currently ongoing, you are invited to consult publically available sources of information:

- The 'Notice to stakeholders' published by the Commission on April 13 2018, and any updates;
- The website of the Commission on air transport, including aviation safety (https://ec.europa.eu/transport/modes/air_en);
- Our own website for the latest information from us (<https://www.easa.europa.eu/brexit>).
